National speaker Bethany Jett is an award-winning writer, whose first attempt at writing a book proposal landed her Writer of the Year at the Florida Christian Writers Conference, a contract with the MacGregor Literary Agency, and a publishing deal. Her book, *The Cinderella Rule*, was a finalist for the 2014 Selah Awards. She is also the founder of her own editing and writing-coaching company, JETTsetter Ink, LLC.

Bethany is a lifestyle blogger, covering all topics “girly” – dating, frenemies, relationships, and beauty. One of her most popular series is The Power of Makeup, covering the gamut of basic skin care to easy contouring for the woman on the go. Her most requested workshop presentation is entitled Confidently Beautiful, where Bethany asserts that beauty is not entirely skin deep.

When she’s not writing or speaking, Bethany enjoys cooking, spending time with her husband and sons, coaching cheerleading, and rooting for her favorite football team, the Florida State Seminoles.

She blogs on girly topics, godly perspective at BethanyJett.com.
